The authors regret that in some instances Smart Energy GB were incorrectly referred to as “Smarter Energy GB” both in the text and also in the reference section. In addition in section 4.2.6.2, the statistic “51% of the British public does not trust any energy supplier” refers to the Smart Energy GB 2015 publication and not the Smart Energy GB 2014 publication. The authors would like to apologise for any inconvenience caused.
